

Patagonia South Yarra & FlyShop 1864 Presents:

FLY FISHING TASMANIA WITH SPECIAL GUESTS DAN & SIMONE HACKETT
THURSDAY, 29 NOVEMBER | 7:15 PM
NIBBLES & DRINKS AS WELL AS PROMOTIONAL DISCOUNTS

Come and join us at Patagonia South Yarra for an evening all about the art of fly fishing, with special guests Dan and Simone Hackett. Dan and Simone own and operate FlyShop 1864 in Launceston, as well as run a fly fishing guiding service in pristine world heritage areas of Tasmania. In addition, Dan is a co-author of several fly fishing journals and blogs across Australia, including FlyLife Magazine.

Over the past decade Dan and Simone have achieved a lot of industry firsts, including opening Tasmania's first river-based lodge (RiverFly Lodge), running Tasmania's first licensed wilderness campouts in the world heritage listed Western Lakes region and, most recently and proudly, the development of RiverFly Wilderness Huts.

As well as a great discussion and insight into fly fishing in Tasmania, Patagonia fly fishing products will be offered at promotional rates to all attendees.
